Tekst 1.

Man: Good evening. Can I see your ticket, please?

Girl: Here you are. What time are we arriving in London?

Man: At 6 p.m. at Victoria Station.

Girl: Oh. I see.

Man: Have a nice journey!

Tekst 2.

Man: Look at the board, Janet!

Girl: I'm looking. But I don't understand this exercise, Mr Brown.

Man: OK. I'll explain it to you. Open your maths activity book.

Girl: Thank you, Mr Brown.

Tekst 3.

Girl: I'd like to buy some flowers, please.

Man: Certainly. We have beautiful roses today.

Girl: The roses look perfect. I'll take seven, please.

Tekst 4.

Boy: Mary, good to see you.

Girl: You too. What's the water like?

Boy: It's perfect. Look, everybody is swimming.

Girl: Right. I'll jump in the pool in a moment.

Tekst 5.

Man: Can I help you?

Girl: Two tickets for the "Midnight Express".

Man: Certainly. The film starts at 4 p.m. Where would you like to sit?

Girl: Far from the screen.

Zadanie 3.

Girl: Yesterday we went shopping with my mum. I bought a T-shirt for myself, a sweater for my dad, and my mum bought herself a nice pair of gloves.

Zadanie 4.

Girl: Mark, where do you live?

Boy: Can you see that house with a garden?

Girl: The one with the big balcony?

Boy: Yes, my room is on the first floor. I can see our trees and flowers from my window.

Zadanie 5.

Boy: Yesterday I was at the hospital. I met your brother there.

Girl: Yes, he was taking our grandmother to see the doctor.

Boy: I thought he works there.

Girl: No, my brother works in a restaurant. He's a great cook.

Zadanie 6.

Girl: Did you enjoy your trip to the zoo, Tom?

Boy: Yes, it was great! There were lots of interesting animals. I saw elephants, crocodiles and monkeys but I loved the elephants best!

Girl: I like crocodiles. Have you seen their teeth?

Boy: They look scary! I prefer elephants. They are so friendly and calm.

Zadanie 7.

Girl: I really like this place. There are a lot of flowers and it's very pleasant. The waiters are really friendly. I usually order tea and chocolate cake and spend time reading a book.
