GHOST HOUSE

2.1.
------	--

Fort William is a town in Scotland where you can buy an old house in the middle of a park for a very good price. But, so far, nobody has even called to ask about it. That's probably because the park around the house isn't a nice place. It's full of old trees so it's very dark even on sunny days. People are afraid of visiting the park, especially in the evenings.

The house was built 300 years ago for a knight. It looks like a small castle. It has very thick walls and a tall tower. In the past, the house had a huge kitchen and nicely decorated rooms. A library was located downstairs. Upstairs there were bedrooms and a dining room. It's a pity that it hasn't become a tourist attraction.

2.3.

Many years ago a young couple decided to move into the house. Very soon they started to notice strange things happening. They could smell rose perfume out of nowhere. They heard terrible noises from the tower. And they often had the feeling that someone was walking around the house although they couldn't see anyone. After a few weeks the couple moved out. Since then the house has been empty.

A. John

I spent my last summer holidays just a few miles away from my house. As usual I stayed with my aunt and her family, and helped them on the farm. I'm not a fan of trips abroad and long journeys. I love visiting my family in the country and I'm sure I'll spend my next summer there, too.

B. Sam

Last summer I made a long-distance trip from England to Russia all by myself. I didn't invite anyone to come with me because I love travelling alone. Next year I am planning to ride my bike to Norway. If I have enough time and money in the future I'd love to sail around the world on my own.

C. Terry

I have a small cottage in the south of England. At first my girlfriend and I wanted to go there on holiday. But then my best friend invited us to spend some time with him because he has a large comfortable house in Scotland. It was a long journey to get there but we enjoyed it a lot.

Which person

3.1.	didn't want any company on his holiday?
3.2.	didn't travel far for his holiday?
3.3.	changed his original holiday plans?
3.4.	spent his holiday with relatives?

FACTS AND FICTION ABOUT COFFEE

According to a study by Amerisleep, conducted in 2020, 79% of coffee drinkers consume coffee daily and 21% have it only sometimes. The average American at the age of 25-34 spends about $2,000 a year on coffee. That is twice as much as the price of the latest smartphone!

Lots of people can't start their day without having a fresh cup of coffee. There is nothing worrying in this habit. Scientists say that drinking a reasonable amount of coffee daily reduces stress levels and improves blood circulation. It also protects us against different diseases e.g. heart problems. So next time you have a cup of coffee think about its benefits and enjoy it even more.

One of the stories about the beginning of coffee's popularity is about Kaldi, a goat keeper from Africa. According to the story, Kaldi noticed that his animals became very active and excited after eating some bright red fruit from a tree nearby. He wanted to see what effect the fruit would have on him. That's why one evening he made a drink out of the fruit and drank it. During the night he found it hard to sleep. He then did the same thing every evening for a few more days and again he had trouble getting to sleep. He now knew that this special drink could help people to stay awake. Immediately, he shared this news with his family. The story of Kaldi's discovery soon began to reach different parts of the world.

		T	F
4.1.	Seventy nine percent of coffee drinkers have coffee every day.
4.2.	Coffee can make people less stressed.
